ORDER

THIS MATTER is before the Court on the telephonic status conference conducted on July 7, 2020, and July 9, 2020, held before the Honorable Carmen E. Garza, Chief United States Magistrate Judge. (Doc. 26); (Doc. 28). On July 7, 2020, Plaintiff Jason Goodman, appearing pro se “expressed his interest in orally moving the Court for dismissal of this case without prejudice.” (Doc. 26 at 1). The Court explained it needed Jami Goodman’s consent before proceeding with Mr. Goodman’s request. Id. Mr. Goodman agreed to confer with Ms. Goodman and assured the Court Ms. Goodman would be present for the telephonic status conference rescheduled for July 9, 2020. Id.

On July 9, 2020, both Mr. & Ms. Goodman appeared pro se. (Doc. 28). At the status conference, Mr. Goodman read a statement prepared by his prior counsel, requesting dismissal of his case without prejudice. (Doc. 28 at 1). Ms. Goodman orally confirmed that she agreed with the prepared statement and the dismissal of her case without prejudice. Id. Counsel for Defendants also confirmed on the record that he had no objection. Id.

Counsel for Defendants then sent a draft order to Mr. Goodman seeking his approval for entry by the Court. Mr. Goodman confirmed via email on July 11, 2020, that both he and Ms. Goodman had no objection to the proposed Order and the requested relief of dismissal without prejudice.

Having considered the statements of the parties at the status conference and good cause appearing, it is hereby ORDERED that these consolidated are dismissed without prejudice.
